PUBLIC COMMENT OPPORTUNITY

Retail Petroleum Margins Review

The New Brunswick Energy and Utilities Board (Board) will conduct a public hearing in relation to a review of :

1. The maximum retail margins for petroleum product;
2. The maximum delivery costs charge; and
3. The maximum full service charge that can be charged by retailers for petroleum product; to ensure that they are justified, and may order such margins, costs or charge to be adjusted after the review is completed.

The Board has engaged Gardner Pinfold Consultants Inc. to review the maximum retail margins, maximum delivery costs, and maximum full service charge that can be charged by retailers for petroleum product, and provided a report on his findings to the Board.

A copy of the report, in both English and French, has been posted on the Board's website under Matter 485.

The Board will hold a Public Forum at which any member of the public may attend and comment on any aspect of the review. The public forum will be held on Thursday, March 18, via the Zoom web conference platform. There will be two sessions, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

To participate in the public forum, register with the Board no later than Friday, March 12, by email at general@nbeub.ca or by calling 1-866-766-2782. Participants are required to provide their contact information and their language of choice. Please refer to Matter 485 in your correspondence.

In the alternative, anyone wishing to provide a letter of comment to the Board may do so by Friday, March 12. Please note that the comments will be shared with all participants and will be posted on the Board's website.

A public hearing in relation to this matter will be held on Wednesday, March 24 to March 26. Members of the public are welcome to observe the proceeding, which is being held via Zoom.

Information in relation to this proceeding can be obtained by contacting the Board.
