NOUVEAU-BRUNSWICK

PUBLIC COMMENT OPPORTUNITY

Retail Petroleum Margins Review

The New Brunswick Energy and Utilities Board (Board) will conduct a public hearing in relation to a review of:

1. The maximum retail margins for motor fuels and furnace oil retailers;
2. The maximum delivery costs that can be charged for motor fuels and furnace oil; and
3. The maximum full service charge that can be charged by retailers for motor fuels to ensure that they are justified, and may order such margins, costs or charge to be adjusted after the review is completed.

The Board has engaged Gardner Pinfold Consultants Inc. to review the maximum retail margins, maximum delivery costs, and maximum full service charge that can be charged by retailers for motor fuels, and a report of their findings was provided to the Board.

A copy of the report, in both English and French, has been posted on the Board's website under Matter 523.

The Board will hold a Public Forum at which any member of the public may attend and comment on any aspect of the review. The public forum will be held on Tuesday, October 11 at the Fredericton Convention Centre, 670 Queen Street, Fredericton, NB. There will be two sessions, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

To participate in the public forum, register with the Board no later than Friday, October 7, by email at general@nbeub.ca or by calling 1-866-766-2782. Participants are required to provide their contact information and their language of choice. Please refer to Matter 523 in your correspondence.

In the alternative, anyone wishing to provide a letter of comment to the Board may do so by Friday, October 7. Please note that the comments will be shared with all participants and will be posted on the Board's website.

A public hearing in relation to this matter will be held from Wednesday, October 12 to Friday, October 14. Members of the public are welcome to observe the proceeding, which is being held at the Fredericton Convention Centre, 670 Queen Street, Fredericton, NB.

Information in relation to this proceeding can be obtained by contacting the Board.
